

Staff Member Since: 2010

Education: Liberal arts courses at Temple University, Philadelphia

Experience: After working as an administrative assistant in economic development for 30 years, I am thrilled to be working in such a beautiful environment.

Favorite thing about working at Rutgers: I really enjoy being surrounded by lovely flowers, shrubs and trees. Most of all, I love working with such committed and knowledgeable people.

Hobbies: I enjoy gardening, reading and travelling. When I'm not playing in my garden, I love making delicious Italian dishes.

Goals: I want to spend more time smelling the roses!
